

Remarks

Applicants submit the above amendment under 37 C.F.R. 1.312 because the Examiner's Amendment entered with the Notice of Allowance is inconsistent with what the undersigned attorney understood was agreed upon. Applicants also believe that the additional amendments provided herewith are necessary to make the claims clear and consistent with the Applicants' intent. Further, in a telephone conversation with the undersigned attorney on April 7, 2006, Examiner Kaushal indicated that he agreed to the amendments.

Based on the above discussion, these amendments could not have been made previously.

Conclusion

In light of the above discussion, Applicants respectfully request entry of the above amendments under 37 C.F.R. 1.312.

Applicants believe that no payment other than the enclosed $715 is required to complete the requirements for issuance. However, should there be additional, unanticipated payment required, authorization is given to take that payment from Deposit Account No. 01-1785. Overpayments may also be credited to that account.

Respectfully submitted
